

that Government long attached should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all acquirements shall remain, that mankind are more disposed to possess than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same, obliges them to rebel, they will shake off the old government, and to provide new guards for their future security. — Such violent destruction of their former constitution, and such a new form of government, is not the duty, but the right, of the people.

The history of the present King of France is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct effect the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these States. — Do you then think it is a matter of course that the people of France should be contented with the present form of government?

He has refused his assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has forbidden his Ministers to sign laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused his assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused his assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public Records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them with his measures. — He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

Chrys

Handwritten musical notation on a single staff, featuring various notes, rests, and bar lines. The notation is written in a cursive style.

Handwritten musical notation on a single staff, featuring various notes, rests, and bar lines. The notation is written in a cursive style.

Handwritten musical notation on a single staff, featuring various notes, rests, and bar lines. The notation is written in a cursive style.

Handwritten musical notation on a single staff, featuring various notes, rests, and bar lines. The notation is written in a cursive style.

Handwritten musical notation on a single staff, featuring various notes, rests, and bar lines. The notation is written in a cursive style.

JOHN T. NORMAN
Child News Service

Note—This is the second series of five articles on States-Cuban tariff rela-

INGTON, July 20.

hencio Batista, 52-year-
"big man" of Cuban politics, the regime of President Socarras during Habloodless coup" of March, was big news in the New York Street and elsewhere American textile industry.
Apparel and related used on official United port declarations at $57.5
went to Cuba last year, to the Office of International Trade Commission issued on Page Six

TEERS START TING OF N. Y. CORP. STORES

ALBANY, N. Y., July 20.

strike of the Norwalk al, United Hatters, Cap linery Workers Union, that Fiat Corp. of Amer-from this community enters in New York City, t 1,500 employees involved. es remain open but are closed.)

V. Novaco, local presi-that Dobbs, Cavanagh hat stores in New York being picketed. Salesmen res have refused to cross lines, Mr. Novaco said. there have been freon meetings and rallies walkout started, there no new negotiations

Japan to Negotiate $60 Million Trade Pact With Cuba

WASHINGTON, July 20.

Japanese officials in Tokyo disclosed today that they intended to negotiate a 60 million dollar trade agreement with Cuba here next month.

Japanese embassy commercial counselors, who were a little surprised at the timing of the talks, said presently high Cuban duties on Japanese cotton textiles would highlight the discussions. Principal Cuban export figuring in such an agreement is sugar.

State Department officials said Cuban duties on Japanese textiles were actually steep enough to be prohibitive and are considerably more severe than rates applied to comparable United States textile manufactures.

HART'S SALES RISE 14.7% IN QUARTER, 18.3% IN SIX MOS.

Sales of Hart Schaffner & Marx in the second quarter and six months ended May 31 showed increases over the corresponding periods a year ago.

A report filed with the Securities & Exchange Commission dis-closes sales and operating revenues for the quarter totaled $15,946,767.
This is an increase of 14.7 per cent over the $13,908,052 volume in the corresponding period of 1952.

in All Categories Indicates General Price Drop

By J. W. COHN

Fairchild News Service

LONDON, July 20. — British piece goods exports to the United States during the first half of this year increased in all categories except silk and rayon, according to trade returns issued today by the Board of Trade.

Standing out in all comparisons with the first six months of 1952 is the fact that in every instance volume of shipments is comparably heavier than value, indicating a general drop in prices. In worsteds in fact, although volume of shipments was up, value declined from 1952 levels.

Figures for the month of June Continued on Page Six

DU PONT SALES UP 18% IN 1ST HALF; PROFITS ALSO RISE

WILMINGTON, Del., July 20.

Improvement in both earnings and sales was registered by E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co. in the first half of this year.

In a semi-annual statement now being prepared for stockholders, the company reported earnings of $2.41 a common share. This consisted of $1.60 a share from the firm's operating activities and 81 cents a share in dividends received from holdings in General Motors common stock.

For the six months to June 30, 1952, earnings were equal to $2.12 a share. Of this $1.31 came from operating activities and 81 cents

Cooperation of Suppliers Invited.

PRESTON B. BERGIN RESIGNS ARF POST IN POLICY DISPUTE

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Preston B. Bergin, for six years assistant to the president of the American Retail Federation, today resigned because of a dispute over ARF policies and procedures.

In accepting the resignation, ARF president Rowland Jones, Jr., said Mr. Bergin would remain on the payroll until Oct. 1, 1953, to give him time to wind up his affairs. His plans are presently incomplete, but he expects to remain in Washington.

Neither Mr. Jones nor Mr.
Bergin would disclose the nature of the disagreement which led to the latter's resignation. Both said it was "an honest one" and Mr. Jones added:

"Any implication of bad feeling is unjustified. Mr. Bergin will leave the federation with the best of wishes for the executive committee."
Continued on Page Thirteen

U. S. CHAMBER HITS DOUBLE TAXING OF CORPORATE PROFIT

By Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, July 20.—A provision of the Internal Revenue Code which permits double taxation of corporate earnings was criticized today by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce.

By HERMAN S. SHAPIRO
Fairchild News Service

ELMIRA, N. Y., July 20.— sell the wholesaler short," was Herbert P. Campbell of Gen-Morris-Campbell Co., Char-W. Va., president of the sale Dry Goods Institute, I the mid-year meeting of the organization here today.

Addressing a capacity audience of 200 in the ballroom the Mark Twain Hotel this noon, Mr. Campbell aimed his

Other News on Page

marks particularly at the more representatives of manufacturers attending the meeting Wholesaling represents an annual volume of $212 billion emphasized, as against re-

Continued on Page Thir

OAP HEAD URGES CONGRESS OK S OF GENL. ANILI

By JOHN T. NORMAN

WASHINGTON, July 20. — head of the Office of Allen erty, Dallas Townsend, today Congress to approve the S Hendrickson bill (S. 2171) to state the sale of the Govern-controlled General Aniline & Co.
Corp. and some 19 other business concerns.

In testimony before a S judiciary subcommittee, law representing General Aniline the Swiss holding company, handled, argued the constitutionality of this legislative Townsend made it clear, however, that the administration